ABINGTON HIGH SCHOOL GREEN YEARS CLASS OF 1967

"Next to acquiring good friends, the best acquisition is that of good books."

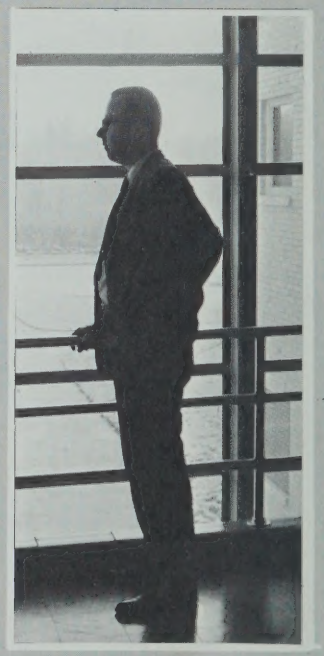
Dedication



Dedicated to the man with the ready smile and the helping hand, who patrols the cafeteria with unyielding vigilance, and who peruses the basements for "school-time" smokers. This man is Mr. John Myers who as vice principal has led us from our first day as freshmen to our last day as seniors.

It is, then, you Mr. Myers to whom we dedicate the 1967 "Green Years" and say "thanks" for your hard work and patience.

Editor's Message—The years after graduation will be the most important ones of our lives. We must set our goals carefully and then strive to attain them. In order to make our youthful dreams become reality, we must work. Our quest to fulfill these dreams will be difficult, but not impossible.

Maturity and flexibility are the primary elements which will determine our success or failure. The world is ever-changing, and, in order to succeed, we must have the maturity to face it without qualms and the flexibility to change with it. If we hesitate or become complacent, our dreams will shatter, and we will be heard vainly echoing regret that "It might have been!"

Principal's Message

Members of the Class of 1967:

Congratulations to the "Great" class of '67. Enormous energy has been spent by some members of this class convincing the faculty and the student body the "great" and "67" are synonymous. Dreamers! Some have been "chasing rainbows" erroneously assuming "greatness" is a cloak, easily purchased, that will hide glaring defects and immature antics.

Attracting attention will not necessarily enhance one's reputation. Rare is the individual who achieves real greatness within his own lifetime. But some, including members of the Class of "67", earn respect and admiration for their noteworthy contributions.

The Class of '67 has some fine students, some outstanding athletes, some excellent leaders of school clubs and organizations, and some who have contributed unselfishly to community projects and services. Greatness? No, but accomplishments that can be reviewed with pride.

Congratulations to the Class of 1967 and may each member strive for greatness in its fullest, richest meaning.

Sincerely,
John A. Murray

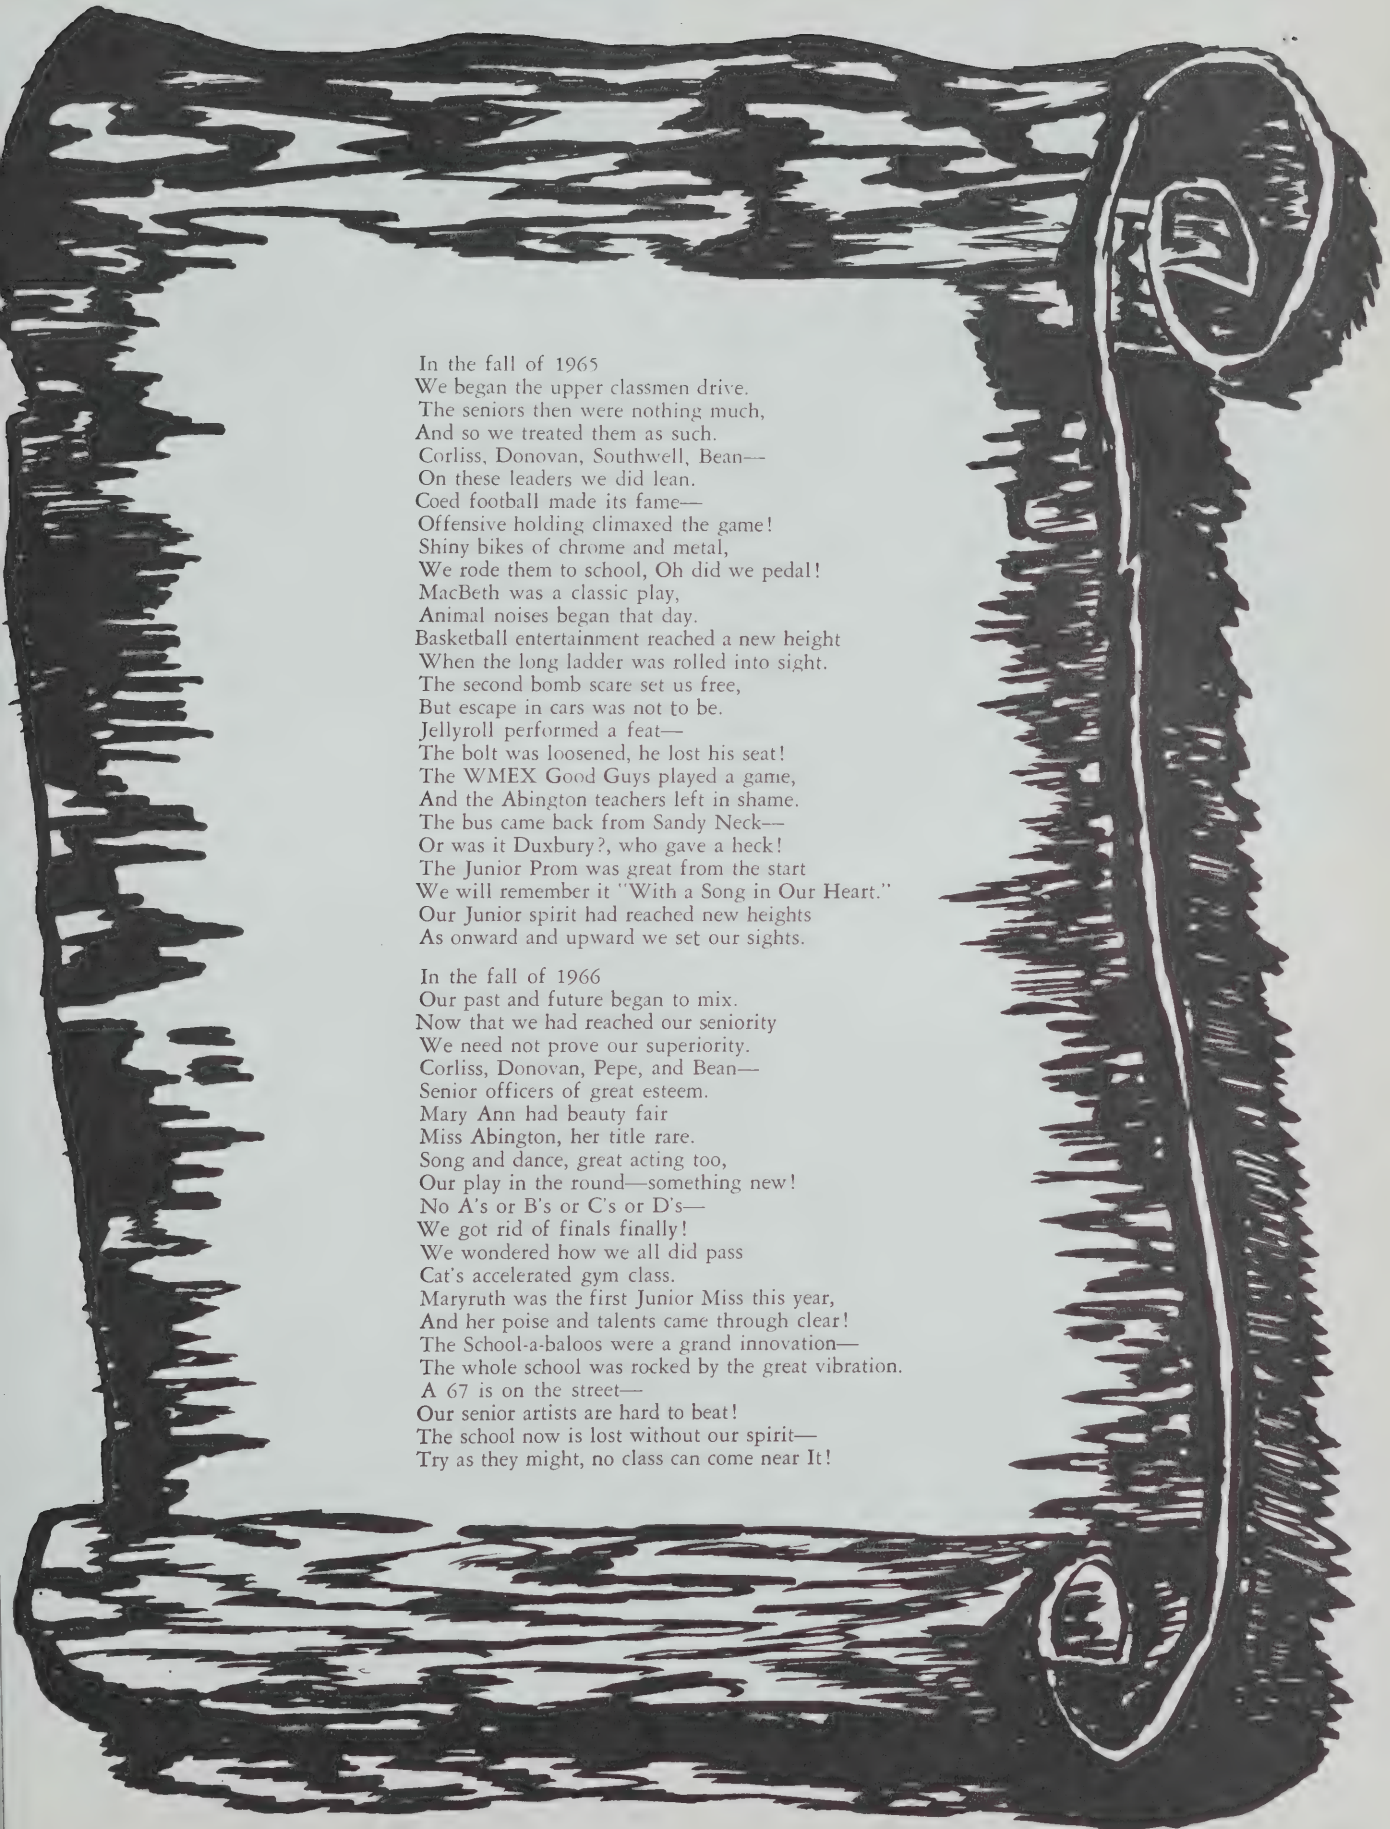
The Spirit of 1967

In the fall of 1963
There came a class well known to thee.
Kuusela, Loomis, Southwell, Bean—
Greatest freshman foursome ever seen!
Emery's memories' in our heads,
Fragrant French and tractor treads.
With Clarabell's new list of rules,
Protecting us from senior fools;
Flying fruit and snowballs too,
Oh, Miss Barrett we were good to you!
Two cool cats had a spat—
Sherry and Kathy—remember that?
As hemlines soared above the knees,
Crooksie's tape sought dignity!
Girls in slips and playing hookie,
Myer caught them—he's no rookie!
And teachers declared throughout the year
There's evidence of spirit here!

In the fall of 1964!
Back we came to give them more.
Caplice, oops! Corliss, Pepe, and Bean—
Our sophomore officers made the scene.
The Sophomore Hop at last paid off,
So the upper classmen made no scoff.
When Mr. Lord said "Keep Quiet!"
The atmosphere was one of riot.
The first bomb scare—we had no blast,
But it was not to be our last.
Biology was quite a spree—
We learned the niche of every tree.
Betsey's party was quite the bash,
While Doherty's erupted into a smash.
Mother Trask's lessons in the risque
Remain vicarious with us today.
Our Sophomore Outing was a sight to behold
When Thumper ate the hot dog rolls.
Our sprints through the dunes met no stops
'Cause we were fugitives from the cops.
Our spirit was ever increasing now,
But we still weren't ready to take our bow!



In the fall of 1965
We began the upper classmen drive.
The seniors then were nothing much,
And so we treated them as such.
Corliss, Donovan, Southwell, Bean—
On these leaders we did lean.
Coed football made its fame—
Offensive holding climaxed the game!
Shiny bikes of chrome and metal,
We rode them to school, Oh did we pedal!
MacBeth was a classic play,
Animal noises began that day.
Basketball entertainment reached a new height
When the long ladder was rolled into sight.
The second bomb scare set us free,
But escape in cars was not to be.
Jellyroll performed a feat—
The bolt was loosened, he lost his seat!
The WMEX Good Guys played a game,
And the Abington teachers left in shame.
The bus came back from Sandy Neck—
Or was it Duxbury?, who gave a heck!
The Junior Prom was great from the start
We will remember it "With a Song in Our Heart."
Our Junior spirit had reached new heights
As onward and upward we set our sights.

In the fall of 1966
Our past and future began to mix.
Now that we had reached our seniority
We need not prove our superiority.
Corliss, Donovan, Pepe, and Bean—
Senior officers of great esteem.
Mary Ann had beauty fair
Miss Abington, her title rare.
Song and dance, great acting too,
Our play in the round—something new!
No A's or B's or C's or D's—
We got rid of finals finally!
We wondered how we all did pass
Cat's accelerated gym class.
Maryruth was the first Junior Miss this year,
And her poise and talents came through clear!
The School-a-baloos were a grand innovation—
The whole school was rocked by the great vibration.
A 67 is on the street—
Our senior artists are hard to beat!
The school now is lost without our spirit—
Try as they might, no class can come near It!

STANDING: Paul Murray, Kenneth Hughes, Robert Nolan, Donald Robbins, David Burns, Edward Fowler, Gerald Peck, Dennis Goldie, Edward Fogarty, Ralph Manning, Kevin McCarthy, John Cullen, Mr. Paolini.

Under the direction of Mr. Paolini, this club was founded in order to fill a gap which is often left by a high school curriculum. It is dedicated to the study of the creative aspects of Western Culture. Their erudite advisor often seeks to show the relationship between modern creative activity and current events.

The Alpha Chapter of the National Honor Society, judiciously advised by Mrs. Barnett is composed of members who have achieved academic success and have shown evidence of character, leadership, and service. The organization sponsors various fund raising activities during the year and its members serve as ushers at various school ceremonies.

The library assistants, led by the experienced Miss Frame, lend invaluable assistance to students in need of books and reference materials. Often serving as a veritable walking index, each assistant adds a personal touch to our convenient school library.

This is an organization of students who desire to enter the teaching profession. Having had long experience in this field, Mrs. Trask, the club's advisor, shows its members the hardships and rewards involved in teaching the young.

Nursing is a profession that requires idealism, devotion, and ability. In order to advise students interested in a career of medical assistance, this organization has been formed once again under the direction of the capable Mrs. Kelley.

The blackboard is often not an adequate teaching aid. For this reason film strips and movies are employed in the classroom. The dedicated members of this club under the direction of Mr. Gerald (C. B. DeMille) Corcoran are responsible for these classroom aids.

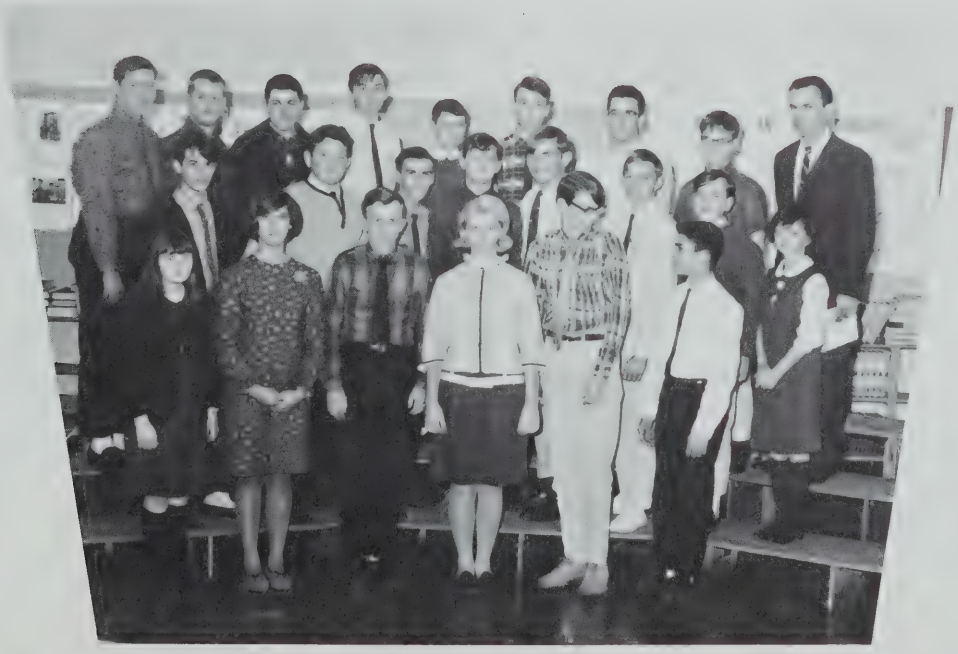
Student Council

P. Lawson, R. Lemay, B. Whiting, S. Cotter, J. Pepe, M. Reiss, SECOND ROW: K. McCarthy, C. Verity, P. Funder, R. Warren, A. Walls, K. West, N. Harris, LeeAnn Olsen, C. Cushman, THIRD ROW: Mr. Smith, B. Hermanson, J. Orlosky, J. Spencer.

The Student Council has had a varied year in activities ranging from salt shakers and paint jobs to the Schoolaballoo and student exchange. One of the more pleasant jobs of the Council is the maintenance of a coke machine in the gym lobby—providing the 'Pause That Refreshes'.

Science Club

FIRST ROW: M. Prall, M. McCormick, W. Johnson, C. Paquette, A. Robinson, P. Murray, SECOND ROW: J. McShockley, A. Stimpson, F. Erwin, S. Doughty, D. Burns, B. Waters, J. Burke, K. Clawson, THIRD ROW: C. Whitman, C. Chester, R. Shanahan, J. Brandeis, S. Plank, J. Coleman, G. Harrington, N. Brown, C. Crayon.



This club, under the direction of Mr. Crahan, follows up regular science classroom study. Its members have taken field trips to college science lectures and have undertaken independent projects using laboratory equipment. It is our fervent hope that these budding scientists make good use of their experimental zeal in broadening the horizons of human knowledge.

French Circle

After all is said and done the meetings and activities of the Circle will remain a memorable experience in the hearts of its members. In the singing of French songs and in the reading of the literature they capture the flavor of the vitality, the humor, and, above all, the generosity of the French people. Mrs. Rosen is the Club advisor, and keeper of les fudgies.

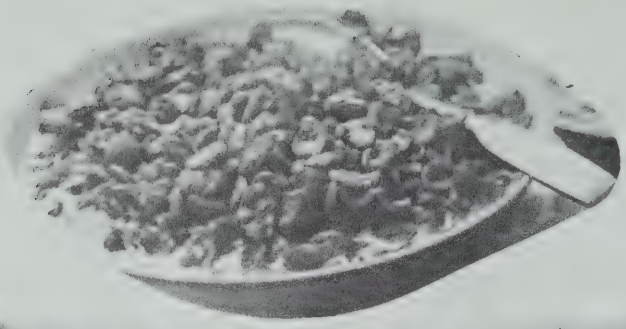
The businessman's best friend is his stenographer. In addition to efficiency and neatness a secretarial career demands maturity. Miss Murphy, the club's advisor, demonstrates these qualities to its members.

Citizens Scholarship Fund

S. Fugerson, J. Murray, P. Brown, A. Walls, P. Sawyer, J. Greenlaw, N. Wentworth, J. MacPhelemy, B. Cohen, R. Little, V. Baker.

The A.C.S.F. was founded last year in order to help deserving students in need of financial aid for college. Its members, ranging from Senior Richard Little to Freshman Bernard Cohen, carry out the thankless task of pounding the street collecting donations to the fund from the citizens of the town.

Cafeteria Assistants



Every year students unselfishly sacrifice time in class to serve our hungry students Mrs. Shanahan's fine cuisine. Our hearts and our stomachs go out to them.

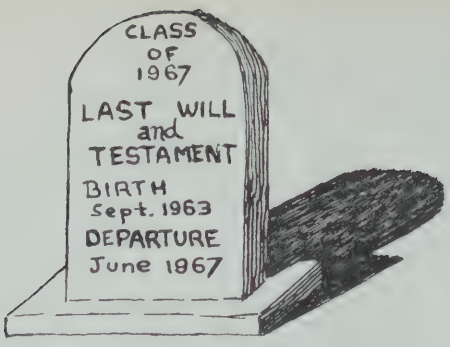
Candids



The Class of 1967, aware that its departure will leave the halls of Abington High a spiritless wasteland, bereft of its sparkling personalities, sharp wit, and buoyant spirit, passionately desire to compensate in any way possible for this catastrophic loss. Therefore, being of sound mind and benevolent mood, we do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, bequeathing our most cherished possessions to these faculty members and underclassmen who must face the long empty years without us.

1. To Dr. and Mrs. Rosen we leave two padded seats for them, so they may see next year's play.
2. We leave Marilyn Pepe still bouncing up the corridors.
3. We leave Anna Ketterle the double feature of the drive-in movie.
4. 'Army' Anderson leaves for the Hell's Angels.
5. The cast of the Senior Class Play leaves Maud a bushel, a peck and a pear around her neck.
6. We leave Karen Pederson and Wayne Hamlet together.
7. We leave Miss Crooks a 'passion' detector for the cafeteria lobby.
8. We leave Mr. Lynch and Miss Baehr still "guiding" the underclassmen.
9. We leave Tiana Nisby still shaking with no one to shake to.
10. The basement hoppers leave Paul Duchaney still tied to the throne.
11. To Mr. Stanley Smith we leave a ten ton supply of 'buffalo' chips.
12. Ronnie Thurber leaves more room to the underclassmen.
13. To Mr. Campbell we leave our favorite movie, "The Sex Life of a Pig".
14. We sadly leave Mr. Callahan's "Paris Island".
15. We leave the underclassmen at the mercy of the cafeteria workers.
16. The Senior Class leaves six suckers still standing.
17. We leave our Class Play unmatched—ASK ANY GIRL.
18. We leave Anne Mackiewicz perfectly satisfied with herself.
19. To Mr. Paolini we give an autographed picture of Franco.
20. To Ed (alias Almighty) Paquette we leave a tape measure to measure his golden calves.
21. We leave a volume of spicy poems to Miss Gearin.
22. To Mr. Murray we leave his Principal's Message.
23. Ralph Manning and Stephanie Cole leave their smelling salts.
24. We leave Beverly Rowan barely visible.
25. Miss Susan Banks leaves her social graces to Linda Coon.
26. To Miss Glinski we leave a swing in her back yard.
27. We leave Mrs. Connors still fudging around.
28. We leave the trellis to our Pembroke benefactor.
29. We leave Stephen Cass the teacher's pet.
30. Finally we leave Mr. Divoll thanks for a great play, and at that we leave.
